

Shiloh, Operator

The TV says I'm not the girl that I should be
It drives me crazy
I'm not impressed; it isn't what I want to be
So call me lazy

Operator operator
Don't call me I'll call you later
Operator operator
I'm just fine I'll call you later

Why would I want to be anybody else but me?
I'm never gonna fake it.
Why would I ever be anybody else but me?
I know I'm gonna make it
Without a doubt, I know what I'm about
I'm everything I'll ever want to be
A girl like me
A girl like me

The magazines are messing with reality
It's entertaining
As long as we don't ever take it seriously
We'll keep on laughing

Operator operator
Don't call me I'll call you later
Operator operator
I'm just fine I'll call you later

Why would I want to be anybody else but me?
I'm never gonna fake it.
Why would I ever be anybody else but me?
I know I'm gonna make it
Without a doubt, I know what I'm about
I'm everything I'll ever want to be
A girl like me

I don't want to loose control
I don't want to sell my soul
I don't want to be no jazztic, spastic,
Superficial plastic clone

Operator operator
Don't call me I'll call you later
Operator operator
I'm just fine I'll call you later

Why would I want to be anybody else but me?
I'm never gonna fake it.
Why would I ever be anybody else but me?
I know I'm gonna make it
Why would I want to be just another wannabe
I'm never gonna be, never ever gonna be
Without a doubt, I know what I'm about
I'm everything I'll ever want to be
A girl like me
A girl like me
A girl like me
A girl like me
A girl like me
