

Shiny Toy Guns, Photograph

All the stars watch over you
Night and day
When you can't stop turning
Where'd you go mysterious?
So ashamed....
You've lost the way again

When did we all start
Living a world in a photograph?
Where I'll find you
Waiting for something

Hiding in places the shapes of the faces
In photographs
When the dreams are done
Look how the tears run...
Through my eyes

You danced upon the mirror glass
On the floor...
When the sky was falling
Where'd you go my curious?
Insecure...
You've lost my way again

I tried so hard
To reflect their hearts
And show them that I'm stronger
And now I run...

Once went through my head
Once was in my head;
I'm waiting
I'm waiting to go again
Once went through my head
What once was in my head
Is through my eyes
