

Shire, I used to love her

I used to love her like no other now its gone away..
I remember when i used to love her,
I used to love her
Till i foundout she wasnt right and i dont want her in my life

Verse one:

She was so enticing felt exciting, how she changed my world future looked so bright (thats my girl) we had a promising relationship, killed it with her selfish shit.
(It was new to me) i feel so hard oh oh ohhhh love.

Hook:

We broke up
and got back again(oohhh), but now i know this is the end I believed in her,
would have stuck with her tatoo'd on my belly i will never forget her.

Chorus:

I remember when i used to love her,
I used to love her
Till i foundout she wasnt right
and i dont want her in my life
I remember when i used to love her,
I used to love her
Till i foundout she wasnt right
and i dont want her in my life

Verse two:

She's promiscuous,
a stumbling drunk
always at the club.
wonders why (it didnt work) with us, she's out there chasing dudes thats on tv, addicted to the cash to fame whatever for a piece of change (shit aint right)

Hook:

we broke up and got back again
but now i know this is the end.
i believed in her would have stuck with her, tatoo'd on my belly, i would never forget her.

Chorus:

I remember when i used to love her,
I used to love her
Till i foundout she wasnt right
and i dont want her in my life
I remember when i used to love her,
I used to love her
Till i foundout she wasnt right
and i dont want her in my life
