

Shooter Jennings, Steady At The Wheel

Well, I push my load across the land
Livin the life of a travelin man
Dusk brings down another day
Gonna swallow up time and throw it away

Chorus:

Zero to sixty, shes the next big thing
They tell me its a steal
Drive all night just to ease the pain
Dont look away
Stay steady at the wheel

You try to sing a familiar tune
Howlin the words under a bloodshot moon
Blacklight troubadour, push on through
As heartbreak sits right next to you
