

Showoff, Tonight

I can see the stars shining that night
But not as bright as your eyes
I can see the moon shining right there
As I run my fingers through your (hair)
Everyday I feel the same
I feel you inside me
Knowing everything is what I wish it to be
And the way you feel
You feel inside
You make me feel alright
Baby yeah
Tonight
Start to look into your eyes once more
And I see a look that I've not before
Kiss you and then I walk away and you just ask that I will (stay)
Everyday I feel the same
I feel you inside me
Knowing everything is what I wish it to be
And the way you feel
You feel inside
You make me feel alright
Baby yeah
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
