

Shwayze, Flashlight

(feat. Dave Navarro)

Ay yo

It's 6 AM and I'm drinkin' a brew,

6:45 still thinkin' of you

Thinkin who, wanna give they love to you

Better than the only black kid in the BU

I ain't from the hood but my rap is good

Knocked three times on the cadillac wood

Kid got luck like a rabbits foot

Shit is good yea shit is good

Chillin in the sand with my video cam

Swallowed that Benzodiazepine

Sports illustrated model gettin' tan

Said "damn shwayze you kinda like the man"

Get I am and I'm big in japan

My pick in my hair and my dick in my hand

What would you do with a hundred grand?

Shit, I'd buy a fresh ass benz

[Chorus:]

When she walked in the club that night,

She had a look in her eye like a flashlight

She said baby I'm a be alright

And the DJ put on our favorite song

And we danced beneath the lights

Left the club when it's light outside,

She sing along to my songs in the ride

"it's alright we can call it a night",

I said politely even though it didn't sound right,

She said "yeah right";

I said "damn straight";

I know a place where we can get down babe,

I got a blanky,

I'll lay it on the sand sand

I went deep like the god damn Grand Can,

Grand slam, bacon and the ham,

She was a fan that turned to a friend,

But now I think I love her since I took her to bed

She shook up my head,

Took all my time,

Spent all my money on diamonds and wine,

What would you do with a hundred grand?

Shit, I'd spend it all on a girl man,

What would you do with a hundred grand?

Shit, I'd buy a fresh ass benz

[Chorus:]

When she walked in the club that night,

She had a look in her eye like a flashlight

She said baby I'm a be alright

And the DJ put on our favorite song

And we danced beneath the lights

When she walked in that club that night,

She had a look in her eye like a flashlight

She said baby I'm a be alright

And the DJ put on our favorite song

And we danced beneath the lights

You got a light? Boy I got a spliff

Gotta split got a life to live

I gotta get gotta write some shit

On the tip of my tongue just like a kiss

I might miss but I might just hit

And if I do I'm a be hell a rich

And I'll get a way finer bitch

So you better be nice sweet lips

And I might just buy you a benz

[Chorus:]

When she walked in that club that night,
She had a look in her eye like a flashlight
She said baby I'm a be alright
And the DJ put on our favorite song
And we danced beneath the lights
