

Shy FX, Unavailable (Feat Di)

For a minute, I thought
We could be together, maybe forever
You came into my life
Now I regret the day that we met
And on the corner pretend
Its ok to go from lovers to friends and back again
I will not stay, in this state of mind
So hear me when I say

Cant keep on walkin in and out my life, when you want to
Cant keep on callin me as you like
I am unavailable right now
Gotta find a way to get over you somehow
I need you to go away

See what you get when you play with my heart
Cos right from the start you
Knew you couldnt stay
And all along
Just what you say
But its a brand new day
And Ive finally found the strength to walk away
No more goodbyes, gotta be true to me
So hear me when I say

Cant keep on walkin in and out my life, when you want to
Cant keep on callin me as you like
I am unavailable right now
Gotta find a way to get over you somehow
I need you to go away

Whatever I got to do to Keep from hurting, over and over
You---dont---care, for anyone but you
And all I do is try to keep you satisfied
But from today, I&#039;ve found the will to say:

Cant keep on walkin in and out my life, when you want to
Cant keep on callin me as you like
I am unavailable right now
Gotta find a way to get over you somehow
I need you to go away
