

Sia, Free Me

i don't want to hold your gaze I am scared what I might see there found myself in this place and I am a burning fire

oh, peace may come
I hope it won't take a long just a faith I cannot see bring me home

I am here all alone
just me and my melody

so free me
free me
from this pain I've been running from I am tired and I am free feeling
so free me
free me
from this pain I've been running from

I am lost and I am calling you
I am lost and I am calling
I am lost and I am calling
I don't have the way back down I am stepping even further take my hand and turn me around I am listening to myself

I hope it won't take a long
bring me home

so free me
from this pain I've been running from
I am tired and I am free feeling
so free me
free me
from this pain I've been running from

I am lost and I am calling you

all the things I put you through I can't take your hand admit, that I don't have a plan only you

free me
