Sia, Sea Shells

By the window Since time began Watch the wind blow Sculpting sand

All in letters bound in string Life is slowly unraveling

Burning castle Turning down Mr. Prince has lost her crown

All in letters bound in string Time is slowly unraveling

She sells Empty sea shells Lost in the ocean

Through the window We can see Sand and biscuits Cups of tea

All in letters bound in string Life is slowly unraveling

She sells Empty sea shells She sells Empty sea shells Lost in the ocean
