

Sick Puppies, Deliverance

Waiting for another line
Cause you throw them at me all the time
Gotta get away from all her lies
And I gotta get away from mine
Tell me where to go when fate wont deliver
Cause I cant forgive her
When I let her know this pain Ive been living
Will her next collision be me?
Brings situation down
And her tempers always on the rise
Im living what Ive seen before
But I wont take this anymore
Its time to hold this to the light
Cause her mental prison is not my decision
So Im cutting my losses this time
Im no longer living through her tunnel vision
Tell me where to go when fate wont deliver
Cause I cant forgive her
When I let her know this pain Ive been living
Will her next collision be me?
Gotta get away from
Gotta get away
Gotta get away this time
