

Sicko, 60 Pound Mall Rat

Today I made the mistake of entering their domain I may never escape my loss will be their gain

Hear their warning call don't go to the mall we need a bigger breed of cats cornered like raccoons hope they get here soon save us from the sixty pound mall rats

They can smell your fear and see the sweat drip off your brow they will circle you and leer make a run for it right now
