

Sicko, You Gotta

You're feeling like you wanna your parents say you gotta your friends all say you oughta
but that ain't you You're feeling like you gotta you're reading that you oughta you're thinking that you oughta
but that ain't you

You're feeling like you wanna
your friends all say you oughta
but that ain't you

You're feeling like you gonna you're reading that you shoulda you're thinking that you gonna
but that ain't you

Sing a song of six pence promise not to die
We won't grow old in here We'll live the dreams as we devise We'll live the dreams as we define

your friends all say you oughta
but that ain't you

You're reading that you're gonna you're thinking that you wanna your parents say you oughta
but that ain't you
We'll live the dreams as we devise
We'll live the dreams as we define
