

Siddharta, T.H.O.R. (English)

This is the land of devotion this is the land of our pride you never see evil motion everyone's taking your side And now we don't drink just water and we don't eat iron food we overcame every trouble

Adore
Your blood Defend
Your lust
No fear
No fall
Delight
For all

Now we are

Calling from heaven above everyone else is stuck in hell
never again we'll be seen as people from the underland Don't need to steal from another the things we needed we've got don't need to wage any battles because there's no one to fight The end of carrying fear and the end of paying the price let's start a beautiful era let's start a beautiful life Calling from heaven above everyone else is stuck in hell
never again we'll be seen as people from the underland

Adore Your blood Defend Your lust No fear No fall Delight For all

Calling from heaven above everyone else is stuck in hell
never again we'll be seen as people from the underland
