Side A, Maybe

Maybe

There I was Waiting for a chance Hoping that you'll understand The things I wanna say

As my love went stronger than before I wanna see you more and more But you closed your door Why don't you try To open up your heart I won't take so much of your time

CHORUS:

Maybe, it's wrong to say please love me too 'Cause I know you'll never do Somebody else is waiting there inside for you Maybe it's wrong to love you more each day 'Cause I know he's here to stay But I know to whom you should belong

I believed what you said to me We should set each other free That's how you want it to be

But my love went stronger than before I wanna see you more and more But you closed your door Why don't you try to open up your heart I won't take so much of your time

CHORUS:

Maybe, it's wrong to say please love me too 'Cause I know you'll never do Somebody else is waiting there inside for you Maybe it's wrong to love you more each day 'Cause I know he's here to stay But my love is strong I don't know if this is wrong But I know to whom you should belong

CHORUS:

Maybe, it's wrong to say please love me too 'Cause I know you'll never do Somebody else is waiting there inside for you Maybe it's wrong to love you more each day 'Cause I know he's here to stay But my love is strong I don't know if this is wrong But I know to whom you should belong
