

Silence 4, Not Brave Enough

All was written
All was done
All was love
Love is gone

I tried, I did, I've torn myself to shreds
I'm used to it, but how much can I still bare?

So I just
Run away, run away, I'm not brave enough
Walk away, walk away, I slap my own face and I
Turn away, Turn away turn, like a coward I smile and I
Run away, run away, from you

All the questions
All the lies
All was loved
Eyes that cry

I feel so beat, I wish you could see without explanations
Would you believe that all this of this was a mistake?
