

Silent decay, My jesus mercy

here I stand alone again
stare into that face again the mirror can't lie
not these eyes
in my darkest hour
my demons rise all that I am doing to you is just what I have to do could it be?
felt al capone like this?
with hundreds by his side but still alone?
I'm so sad, so sad today justice never left me - it's blown away!
my hand on my gun, it's time to play... my justice is gone - it's gone away!
all that Im doing to you
is just what I have to do I follow my own rules believe in my own truth you can trust in me as I can trust myself
here I stand alone again
you made me your leader you made me your hunter you chose to be prey
