

Silent Force, Once Again

So nice to meet you
The pleasures mine
Not very often I'm feeling left behind
Don't speak the language
As many do, the sound take me far

Fighting the silenc of chosen sanctity
A coice I made alone
Am I mislead by the selfish blinding need
My dreams all meet again
Once Again

The star is burning
But the flame is gone
I'll take a new look as I'm hanging on
As the world keeps turning
The faith is gone
The crimes of my ages

Fighting the silenc of chosen sanctity
A coice I made alone
Am I mislead by the selfish blinding need
My dreams all meet again
Once Again
