

Silent Majority, Polar Bear Club to me this is a life style and not some silly trend and years from now when they're all gone I pray that we're still friends in the sand at Gilgo beach in the year two thousand and sixteen I'll be 42 and so will you in our chairs right by the sea faded tatoos on our legs and back and our feet are buried in the sand I just bought a microphone for my kid 'cause she's tryin' out for a band

"the time is now, the time is here" this times forever am i clear-stop-go!
