

Silentium, Apart

"It's like throwing oil into my flaming soul, waking up at nights, alone, with memories of you...&

Don't leave me here
Don't leave me now,
While I 'm breaking down
Don't push me away
Don't turn away like there's nothing to say

I am burning
I know it hurt's too much
I am yearning
I 'm longing for your touch

Don't look away
My life would be done,
If you'd be gone
Just let me stay
Just let me hold you here,
It's so cold and I fear...
I 'm still burning
I hurt you so much
I 'm still yearning
I 'm still longing for your touch

Tear after tear
Tear me apart
Tear after tear
Ripped me apart
