

Silentium, Unbroken

Was there a time, when I was feeling
The time for shade of hope or fear
Sometimes I wonder, am I breathing
When was it when we were dreaming
When did the sun, stop from shining
Remember when I felt the rain
Sometimes I wonder, am I fading
When we were hurting
Did I need the pain just to feel alive
Did I get this numb just to survive
Did I need the rain just to feel alive
Did I get this cold just to survive
Was there a child, who was dreaming
When did I lose the sense of me
Sometimes I wonder, am I sleeping
When stopped I desiring
Did I need the pain just to feel alive
Did I get this numb just to survive
Did I need the rain just to feel alive
Did I get this cold just to survive
Would you please, could someone please
Could someone make me unbroken again
Is there someone I could reach
Could someone make me whole again
Was there a time, when I was feeling
The time for shade of hope or fear
Sometimes I wonder, am I breathing
When was it when we were dreaming
...we were dreaming
