

Silly Fools, I've Got Blind

I can't see in front of me.
It's like I have gone blind.
My love for you denied.

When I can't reach for you.
It's like my hands are tied.
While I wait for your reply.

Will you ever tell me why?
I cry and I'm dying inside.
Hear my lonely cry.
What will become of me?

It's like I've gone blind.
And both my hands are tied.
I've been calling.
You know and I've tried and I've tried.
It's like I've gone blind.
And both my hands are tied.
I've been falling.
And I need you by my side.

I'm lying at your front door.
My tears stain the floor.
Can't hide this pain inside.

This lonely desperation.
I cry and cry and cry.
Please don't leave, don't leave me behind.

Will you ever tell me why?
I cry and I'm dying inside.
Hear my lonely cry.
Why do you run from me?

It's like I've gone blind.
And both my hands are tied.
I've been calling.
You know and I've tried and I've tried.
It's like I've gone blind.
And both my hands are tied.
I've been falling.
And I need you by my side.

You let your phone keep ringing.
Your last word still stinging.
On the edge of never, I am waiting.

Will you ever tell me why?
I cry and I'm dying inside.
Hear my lonely cry.
What will become of me?

It's like I've gone blind.
And both my hands are tied.
I've been calling.
You know and I've tried and I've tried.
It's like I've gone blind.
And both my hands are tied.
I've been falling.
And I need you by my side.

It's like I've gone blind.
And both my hands are tied.

I've been calling.
You know and I've tried and I've tried.
It's like I've gone blind.
And both my hands are tied.
I've been falling.
And I need you by my side.
