

Silverstein, We Are Not The World

I've always been your favorite game
And all the world's your sparkling stage
Just another extra in your play, the fool
I'm ready for your drama
You're throwing every hook tonight
Your charismatic lines make tears run down their cheeks
I've lost the only thing I need
Here's to the plaintiff
And now you're taking her away
I've always been your favorite game
And all the world's your sparkling stage
Just another extra in your play, your fool
Fallen a bomb grenade now
I'm just a kid like you
We fight for billionaires who bomb our city streets
To find a use for ? green
Here's to the propaganda
And then they take your life away
I've always been your favorite game
And all the world's your sparkling stage
Just another extra in your play
x2
And now that war has been declared,
How long until bombs burst in air
We've come too far
Just to let this die, to throw this away
I've always been your favorite game
And all the world's your sparkling stage
Just another extra in your play
x2
