

Simple Plan, Ruin My Life (feat. Deryck Whibley)

I used to lie awake and let you occupy my mind
I used to put you first and always leave myself behind
And I'll admit you got real close but I'll be sleeping fine tonight
Sorry, I don't mean to disappoint you
You didn't ruin my life

Why did I let you in my head
I never should have let you creep in
Every single word you said
Got to find a way to shake it

You don't want to let me be
You want to see me fall to pieces
Trying to put a curse on me
Got to find a way to break it

I used to lie awake and let you occupy my mind
I used to put you first and always leave myself behind
And I'll admit you got real close but I'll be sleeping fine tonight
Sorry, I don't mean to disappoint you
You didn't ruin my life

Some days I just can't win
You're always there to point your finger
But words will never pierce my skin
Finally found a way to shake them
You can spill your hate on me
Now I know that I can take it
And you're the one who's hurt
Clearly you're the one who's really breaking

I used to lie awake and let you occupy my mind
I used to put you first and always leave myself behind
And I'll admit you got real close but I'll be sleeping fine tonight
Sorry, I don't mean to disappoint you
You didn't ruin my life
