

Simple Plan, She Cries

Into the unknown
Stay away he said
Dont ever come back home
Cry away
The days i find so long
On your own
You stay away

Stay away

Beaten from the pain
That he left inside your heart
Fallen in the way
Your whole life has fallen apart

So you sail away
Into the unknown
Stay away he said
Dont ever come back home
Cry away
The days i find so long
On your own
You stay away

Alone
She cries
Bruise and hate inside
New love
New life
Without that one loser who once said

Heres your kiss goodbye

See this is real
She doesnt feel

Lonely hearts
Shattered dreams
Theres nothing better in this place
Nothing but Memories
In her mind

So you sail away
Into the unknown
Stay away he said
Dont ever come back home
Cry away
The days go by so long
On your own
You stay away

Alone
She cries
Bruise and hate inside
New love
New life
Without that one loser who once said
Heres your kiss goodbye
