Simply Red, Fairground

Driving down an endless road Taking friends or moving alone Pleasure at the fairground on the way

It's always friends that feel so good Let's make amends like all good men should Pleasure at the fairground on the way

Walk around, be free and roam There's always someone leaving alone Pleasure at the fairground on the way

And I love the thought of coming home to you Even if I know we can't make it I love the thought of giving hope to you Just a little ray of light shining through

Love can bend and breathe alone Until the end it finds you a home Don't care what the people may say

It's always friends that feel so good Let's make amends like all good men should Pleasure at the fairground on the way

And I love the thought of coming home to you Even if I know we can't make it I love the thought of giving hope to you Just a little ray of light shining through
