

Simply Red, I'm gonna Lose You

I'm gonna reach out
And try to get a hold on you
Turn around, and try to get a hold on myself too
You, you're playing games with my life
I can't stand it, I'm gonna lose you
I'm gonna lose you
I try to look inside your mind
But I can only see where the light shines
Fate is screaming to be lonely and blue
It's driving me crazy, I'm gonna lose you
I'm gonna lose you
And it's tearing me apart
Staring through my heart
Where, tell me where has the voice gone
The sound I base every beat of my heart on
Now it cares only for you
The irony is I'm gonna lose you
I'm gonna lose you
I'm gonna lose you
And it's tearing me apart
Staring through my heart
