Simply Red, Love Has Said Goodbye Again

Love has said goodbye again. See the road we go down When the wind dies down come the tears That bring a new beginning

Love has said goodbye again feel the road we go down We are here but the way we are here is changing

There are many things here in this world That make me laugh Comes a dream, comes a dream Hey Laugh Hey Laugh

Love has said goodbye again. Feel the road we go down From the clear new year comes the dream of a new tomorrow

There are many things here in this world Are gonna make me laugh Comes a dream Hey laugh, hey laugh

Love has said goodbye again. Feel the road we go down From the clear new year comes the dream of a new tomorrow From the clear new year comes the dream of a new tomorrow From the clear new year comes the dream Comes a dream
