

Since Forever, Champions Of Norrath

Ive got some paper and a stereo
For me to clear my head
Its like no one can ever hear me though
Cause every breath is so pathetic
I hear you whisper and the
Rumors stick to every finger
Its like Im drowning in the ones
Pointing back at me
This simple Sleight of hand
Is fooling everyone
Im wrapped around your finger
We tremble
To break the silence
Calling us out
But I wont stop right here
I guess my point is proven
That the person I was yesterday
Should probably be ignored
Im sick and tired of excuses
Yea! Ive heard every plea
Its like Im drowning in your waters
When I kick and scream
We tremble
To break the silence
Calling us out
This pride is, this pride is
And this pride is
Taking our ship down
This wall that Ive built up
In this selfish fashion
Has just turned to ashes
And youre holding the matches
You showed me how
To quit flashing my gold plated heart
Lest I forget whatever pencil or speaker barbiturate
My name is still written underneath yours
