Sinead O' Connor, How Insensitive

How insensitive I must have seemed when he told me that he loved me. How unmoved and cold I must have seemed when he said it so sincerely. Why, he must have asked did I just turn and stare in icy silence? What was I to do? What can you do? when a love affair is over? Now he's gone away and I'm alone with the memory of his last look. Vague and drawn and sad, I see it still All the heartbreak of his last look. Why, he must have asked would I just turn and stare in icy silence? What was I to say? What can you say? when a love affair is over? Why, he must have asked did I just turn and stare in icy silence? What was I to say? What can you say? when a love affair is over? over over
