

Sinergy, Laid To Rest

I lay down on snow covered sheets of loneliness and I weep, I'm crying out for you I'm longing just to have one more chance

And right now...

...My hands are reaching out to you I stand here frozen with fear my heart is shattering in two please don't leave me here to live alone my world is grey without you I am so lost, no where to go

Alone... I'm filled emptiness alone... I call your name alone... no hope remains and alone I bid farewell so long... I end my emptiness so long... no name to call so long... no need for hope and so long, I leave this life

(SOLO : Laiho)

lay me down, this is my final resting place I have failed, I let you down my dear this shame overwhelming inside of me so goodbye...

...I have to leave my world behind I've fallen too many times can't take rejection anymore now it's time to meet my destiny I won't be missed anyway I'll fall into serenity

Alone... I'm filled emptiness
alone... I call your name
and alone I bid farewell
so long... no name to call
and so long, I leave this life

(SOLO : Laiho)

Alone... I'm filled emptiness
alone... I call your name
and alone I bid farewell
and so long, I leave this life

Goodbye...
