

Sinisstar, Porcelain

Damn your eyes
and all the times you looked into mine Paralyzed
by everything I do now you're mine
Damn your eyes
and everything inside
Not this time
It wont be alright
You and I
Will never say goodbye or goodnight Every time I look into your eyes
everybody else just seems to die
Damn your skin
It's the beginning of the end
Will be my only sin
Porcelain
Just like a baby doll over again and again
Every time I look into your eyes
everybody else just seems to die
Every time I look into your eyes
Every time I look into your eyes
everybody else just seems to die
Everything I do just seems so wrong
You might be dead but I'm not
