Sinister, Crown Of Thorns

Enjoy your pain While marching to your death With a punctured skull With spines in the head

The stabbing needles Make the blood flow Defeated by cruelty No sorrow for your goals

Thy fallen kingdom Your bloody passion The massacre is complete After years of repression

Walk the road to perdition In your blood-soaked dress With a heavy load Your life is in distress

Cherish death The head deformed A battered skull The crown is thorned

Crown of thorns Crown of thorns
