

Sino Sikat, Safety Off

I'm turning my safety off
I'm ready to talk to you
Alone

A kiss, a hug, another drink
Puts me right back to
Denial of persistent memory

I'm watching you
Make a fool of you
Over and over again

You can leave the fire open
It's not dying anyway
It's not dying anyway
It's not dying anyway

I'm turning my safety off
Unclasping my guarded moments
For you

Nothing here is apropos
And I'm crying out to saints and sinners alike
I'm giving you all the soul I've got
Again and again and again

You can leave the fire open
It's not dying anyway
It's not dying anyway
It's not dying anyway

You can leave the memory open
It's not dying anyway
It's not dying anyway
It's not dying anyway

I'm turning my safety off
I'm ready to fall in love with you
Over & over & over again
