

Sins Of Thy Beloved, A Tormented Soul

My own little world I hide away
I feel no pain I hide away
Never to talk
And never to walk no more

This is my fate this is my choice
I have ruined your life
Never to talk
And never to walk no more

I've played like a fool
This is my life
I take it all back
Never to talk
And never to walk no more

I vanish through the night
I travel through my life
I am sinking in the earth
Never to talk and never to walk no more
In the shadows of a tormented soul
There conceals a murky threshold
Eldritch phantasm reveals
The yearning for infinitude invades

My beloved tremble in fear
My detest against thee who's a plager

Finally there is peace in thine soul
My resurge will reveal ye fate
In the misty twilight I appear
Invisible I conquer

Solely I fade with the winter
Solely I reveal my secrets
Infinitude I conceal in thy phantasm
Infinitude my phantasm is of thee
In my grandeur I proceed my voyage
In my grandeur my resurge is of thee
My resurge will sway through dimensions
My resurge will reflect thine demeanour
