

Sissel, Keep Falling Down

I'm all alone in the rainfall
I hear my name call
I look up but there's no one around

The sky is wild
And the wind blows
I'm out my window
Trying to fly
But I keep falling down

I will never have that dream again
If I do I'll just get up and then
Sure as the sun will rise
I'll be there by your side
'till the end of time

I live my life, where it takes me
I'm what it makes me
I get up but I keep falling down

The blinding light silhouettes me
I try to get free
So I run, but I keep falling down

I will never have that dream again
If I do I just get up and then
Sure as the sun will rise
I'll be there by your side
To the end of time

And every night
I close my eyes
I hear the voices calling
Don't try to hide
Don't try to fight
It's only sleep
It's just a dream
And your not falling

I live my life, where it takes me
I'm what it makes me
I get up but I keep falling down
