

Sister Machine Gun, Think

In my mind you're here now even though you're far away
And I don't know if I'll even try to make it through today
Regenerate, recirculate now until my blood runs dry
And I'll never know the things I'm missing until the day I die
Well I lied when I said "nothing"; but I don't know what to do...

I just think about you
I think about you
I think about everything you did to me
But most of all I need to think about you

In my mind you're everything and I will never know
Why you needed me when I had nowhere else that I could go
Run around in circles now until my legs give out
But I look at the temptation but there's never any doubt
Well I lied when I said "nothing"; but I don't know what to do...

I just think about you
I think about you
I think about everything you did to me
But most of all I need to think about you

I'm afraid I'm missing little pieces of my soul
But I never had a need for all the things I didn't know
Start from the beginning now and tell me everything
'Cause I'm lost without you, I don't think I'd do all this again
Well I lied when I said "nothing"; but I don't know what to do.
