

Six Feet Under, Decomposition Of The Human Race

The hopeless, the terrified you're petrified, it's time to die i vomit in the face of the faithful the misled, the ignorant the ones who are truly dangerous the holy the justice system the president
the ones who are truly dangerous
it's time to die decomposition of the human race a warning from beyond the grave
out of the ashes
and into the fucking flames the soulless, the unworthy the undead now walk the earth in pain they hunt you to devour to massacre you to overtake this world
the misled
the ignorant
the ones who are truly dangerous
it's time to die
decomposition of the human race
a warning from beyond the grave
the image of man betrays that which distinguishes him from the other animals his ability to observe himself the decay of modern society, leads to doom. turn back the clock retreat into the essence of life but it's too late for you now decomposition of the human race
a warning from beyond the grave
varicose the heart is now closed eyes still open, but soon you'll decompose you're on your way to your grave and it's a bottomless pit
