

Six Feet Under, Tomorrow's Victim

Premonition, I dreamt of horror knowledge of the future i've broken through the barrier Transcend beyond my body the spirits call to me these nightmares are reality
Reflections - of another life
Reflections - in my eyes
Visions, victims
I've seen each death murder, torture
I know the next - dead
Through shadows of the mind Reaching for the light
I've seen them die
When I close my eyes
Reflections - of another life
Reflections - in my eyes
I've seen the dead tomorrow's victim
I've told of places I've seen but have never been Terror, fear
as each life ends Horror, dread
I've seen the next - dead
