

Skamp, Sunday Feelings

Memories are made with each moment saved can't turn away from the past - afraid the future isn't to last - you always gave me strength when I had nothing left - it all came true with time just had to wait a while there's so much more to see so much more of me

Remembering the times of days gone by gives us hope
Come the morning light - you will fly high
I promise you child, you'll go far darling,
You'll be alright

Remember all that we've been through just making it this far when we were young we all had the dream to be the one the shooting star - some still believe while others are gone there is so much more to see - so much more of me

Remembering the times of days gone by gives us hope
I promise you child, you'll go far darling,
You'll be alright.
