

Skew Siskin, Bloody Hierarchy

We are the creatures they don't wanna show
We are the broken ones they don't wanna know
We are the forgotten ones in so many ways
They set the price, we're built to pay

We are the fools eatin' the dirt in their ground
We explore life, stick to what we've found
We believe in our own religion and we believe in you

Did the ever think that we might not care
First they wanted us, now they wouldn't dare
Hellish rules, no this game ain't fair
But we're living with this

BLOODY HIERARCHY
YOU KNOW IT'S STUPIDITY

We are the fools in a broken world
We are lost children, unable to speak a word
Born into this life, never had a chance to choose it
And no chance to defend

We are tired of hearing all the excuses
Built up a vision of how it might should be Denied and disrespected, poor and dejected
Now we're alive, so we gotta right to be

Did the ever think that we might not care
First they wanted us, now they wouldn't dare
Hellish rules, no this game ain't fair
