

Skin, Falling For You

Caught a look in your eyes
Id they linger too long
Were you just being kind
Or have a read it all wrong
When i brushed by your side

Bridge 1
Suddenly I realised
Theres something going on

Chorus
Im falling for you
Im falling for you
Whatever it is
Whatever you do
Im falling for you

I must gain control
I must take care
Cant allow this to ever
Become an affair
But the tension is sweet

Bridge 2
Suddenly I need it
To keep this going on

All night I think of nothing else
(But if) I could sit out this storm
Id try, to forget how I felt
(But as) soon as I see your face
I know Ill fall

And every moment
I have to endure
I look for a reasion
To be where you are
Im out of my head

Suddenly I realise
You are where I belong

Gonna kill this thing
Forever
We cant carry on
Whatever it is
What ever you do Im falling for you
