

Skin, On And On

What you see aint what you get
You truly try but soon forget
The trouble that I smell in you
It leaves me blind to your abuse

Still I can hear
What you dont know
Broken down while
Pain around me goes

On and on

Disaffected painted love
I challenge you to be the one
Who loves me like some sacred soul
And feels in me a gorgeous home

Youre the one
Who brings me down
But Im the one
To turn it around
