

Skinny Puppy, Dead Lines

Tarnish away

Tarnish

Simple test at best

All is nothing less

Run for more

I can't decide

Love in the grass

All is nothing less

Rather

You look me in the eye

Your face creeping in

Your caring thankless grin

Immobilize the second sin

Create the mood that's dark and grim

???

How i depart

mood altered

paradise is lost

maskover

no one left in dark

hide the trap

caution

deadline remark

???

burns your skin

known so long

feels like the next of kin

how i depart

Deadline

Deadline remark

rose hip

a shallow kiss chauvinistic go look inside

whilst in the back a gold to lead to resurrect whats left to die
