

Skold Vs. KMFDM, Gromky

Teach me what is right and what is wrong, show me how to act and to belong
Tell me where the puzzle pieces fit, where to start and when to quit

I think we might be having a little, too much fun

After all is said and done
I will cut out your mothers tongue
Pooshka to the gulliver. Gromky! Gromky!

Show me how the world's not black and white, how to tell me left from right
Teach me how to love my fellow man, be courteous and lend a helping hand

If it feels so fucking good, then it must be wrong

After all is said and done
I will cut out your mothers tongue
Pooshka to the gulliver. Gromky! Gromky!
