

Skold Vs. KMFDm, Love Is Like

One day you will crack it, the enemy inside the pig always slipping, away

Winning seems so probable until you loose the only real conclusion is the one you choose

Love is like a bullet in the head - uh huh what you heard is never really what I said - uh huh
Love is like a bullet in the head - uh huh
what I wrote is never really what you read - uh huh - uh huh - uh huh

Some day you will find it, a way to say goodbye a way to put the memory, aside

It's only getting better once you cross the line Every trace of happiness erased in time
