Skrape, Broken Knees

My eyes seem to see What others never see Something's building inside me But it's not for real

You hate Rape me

Some way is how My resurrection's now So unable to breathe With broken knees

No cause for a scene Cause no one's knees are clean Such a killer inside me I'll come for you

You hate Rape me You hate Rape me

Some way is how My resurrection's now So unable to breathe With broken knees

Don't tell me I can't hate You hate Rape me

You hate Rape me

I'll never hurry I'll never worry I walk on broken knees
