

Skrape, My Life

Hey! Hey!
Fuck you and all the bitches made
Once again I fit in
And fuck it up again
And you think what?
A mother fucker abusing rake
In the face of hate
I stay in shape
I push it to an escapade

There goes my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning
This is my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning

Respect isn't something you get for free from me
A generation left me floating independently
Now keep gain to what the industry showed me
The masterminds/They trust you freely today

There goes my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning
This is my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning

There goes my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning
This is my life
And now it seems
That I'm drowning
