

Sky Tells All, Girls Gonna Dance

Hey there pretty girl
Will you move those hips just one more time for me
Cause you've got it good
I've got one more penny
Left in the bank
But my head it in the stars
Girl your taking over me
And I want to come back down
Another drink I think I'm out
Girl you've got to shake
Dance, dance, dance
This is a true romance
This is not a game
Dance, dance, dance
This is a true romance
Lets make the move to break the ice
He's the perfect gentleman
With 12 roses in his hand
That's just how we pretend
To someone else, it all makes sense
And I've got the plastic heart
To make all your dreams come true
Hey there pretty girl
Will you move those hips just one more time for me
Cause you've got it good
You got your gun out
So pull the trigger now
Is that your escape?
Your excuse, somehow
Dance, dance, dance
This is a true romance
This is not a game
Dance, dance, dance
This is a true romance
She's the one that I want
She stole my heart
