

Skye, Calling

I'm calling, wanting you near
You're stalling, I feel your fear
You've been hurt before
I understand why you're insecure
I'm falling 'cause I'm so sure

Come on, come on, come on
Come in closer now
Tell me what you got to lose
Come on, come on, come on
Come in closer now
How can you refuse...
Me

I'm flying and you could be too
But you're crying, what's holding you

Love is calling...
Open up and let life shine
I'm calling...

Come in closer now
Tell me what you got to lose
Come in closer now...
