

Skylar Blue, Faye

Close my eyes underneath a full moon who shares her smile.
Here I'll wait just for her entrance.
Soft words spoke but heard aloud,
she holds me here but,
she can't hear what's on my heart screaming.

Can you stay for a while or just forever.
Open eyes... you're gone...

When I find you,
you go away...
Close my eyes for another day.
Just to find you,
here I'll pray.
Make a wish for you to stay...
Just forever...

Reach to light,
Throwing smiles that will last forever...
She renames mountains for me.
Afraid to leave,
afraid to open my eyes to my loss...
Perfectly she holds my face screaming.

Can you stay for a while or just forever.
Open eyes... you're gone...

When I find you,
you go away...
Close my eyes for another day.
Just to find you,
here I'll pray.
Make a wish for you to stay...

When I find you,
you go away...
Close my eyes for another day.
Just to find you,
here I'll pray.
Make a wish for you to stay...
Just forever...
